FROM THE PARISH PRIEST

As we continue through Ordinary Time, the Gospel reminds us that every Christian is called to be light in the world by the way we live. Holiness is not something reserved for special moments, but something worked out in the ordinary duties of daily life: in our families, our work, and our prayer. This week we celebrate the feast of Our Lady of Lourdes, and we place before her all who are sick, anxious, or in need of comfort. Let us remember that Christ comes to us especially in our weakness and draws us to himself through the sacraments and through faithful prayer. Please continue to pray for one another, for our parish, and for those preparing for the sacraments in the months ahead. May the Lord bless you and keep you faithful in the week to come.
